the history of crime in Louisville, A mar named John Glass, who bad entered the Gath right House on Wednesday night and stoler boarders, was arrested at the residence of Dr. Caspari, which he had entered with felenious intentions. The accused was examined in the City Court this morning and required to giv bond for his good behavior and for his lutur appearance to answer an indictment.

Subsequently officer Green arrested a man at Masonic Temple, who had made several fruitless attempts to pass the worthless notes of the Newport Safety Fund Bank. About nine o'clock an affray occurred on Second street, between James, a slave of Mr. C. C. Spencer, and a boy belonging to Mr. W. K. Thomas, in which the latter received several severe cuts upon the arm. Mr. Spen cer's boy was arrested.

A purty of disorderly men, named Jefferso Mitchell, Jack Murtz, and Dennis Breugin. came in collision with the police at the fire on Market street, between Tenth and Eleventh, at two o'clock. The police had reason to believe that the trio were carrying off property from the burning buildings, and endeavored to drive them away, but they resisted, and one of the party, Jeff Mitchell, fired a shot at policeman Sayre, but without effect. The three men were prompily arrested, and they, too, presented before Judgo Johnston this morning. Mitchell was required to give bond to answer an indictment, and Martz and Brannin were held for their good behavior.

a resident of this city, and a clerk in the Indian office at Washington, has invented a new method of filing and preserving business pa pers which entirely revolutionizes the old red tape system. It consists of a compact folding box, so arranged that the papers may be examined by their titles without removing them from the box. It is dust, mouse, and moisture proof, and so practical that it facilitates business affairs a hundred per cent, including uniformity, disally the boards, linen wrappers, and tape in public offices. It is already in use in the Patent Office and Agricultural Department, and we presume will be adopted by the Government offices, as well as come into universal use. WHAT CONSTITUTES A BEUGRADE.-Earl Russell settles this matter pretly certainly. In letter to Lord Lyons, dated February 15,

'Her Majesty's Government have had under their consideration the state of the block-ade of the ports of Charleston and Wilmingade of the poits of Charlestou and Wilmington. It appears from the reports received from Her Majesty's naval officers that, although a euflicient blockading force is stationed off those ports, various ships have sucressfully cluded the blockade. A questiou might, therefore, be raised as to whether such a blockade should be considered as effective.
Her Majesty's Gararnment, bowers, services inion that, assuming that the blockade aly notified, and also that a number of ship or to create an evident dunger of entrance of a nort, sufficient, really, to prevent access to lt, or to create an evident danger of entering or eaving lt, and that these ships do not volunhrough it, as in the particular instances here eferred to, will not, of itself, prevent the ockade from being an effective one by inter ade being always and necessarily a matter of act and evidonce, and one as to which different opinions may be entertained, a neutral and notified blookade, and ought not to dis-regard it, except when it entertains a convic-tion, which is shared by ceutrals generally having an interest in the matter, that the pow-er of blockade is ahused by a State either un-

Senoray Wright was arrested in St. Louis ou Wednesday, in the act of leaving for the South with a package of letters, large quantities of medicines, clothing, &c. The St. Louis Democrat says that Dr. Wright is about forty years of age, and formerly lived in St. Joseph, Buchanan county, Mo. He is described as having been in the rebel service, in Parsonis division and resigned in order to the were sold on Friday at from $108,000 to $112. in Parsons's division, and resigned in order to eugage in the enterprise in which he has been raught. Whether his object was to be useful in o the Contederates, or to make money by muggling vuluables to them, or both, is matter of surmise. He is charged as a spy, attempting to convey contrahand goods to the enemy, and also attempting to convey correstable of the enemy, and also attempting to convey correstable by the sale by the s

THE PRINCESS ROLL.-The Washington tar saye. "We give the principal items of the mani fest of the cargo of the steamer Princess Royvl. The fact that a copy of her manifest is at hand here at this time proves the vigilance with which our foreign office notes the operawith which our foreign office notes the operatious of the rebels on the other side of the ocean, and their aiders and abettors. The total value of this eargo in London, without insurance, was £132,280, while her own value there wus nuch greater, as she is one of the fastest and best built iron propellers ever turned out from a British shipyard. Her value and that of her cargo to the rebels, had she succeeded in getting lato Charleston harbor, would have heen millions of dollars. Though caught endeavoring to get into Charleston caught endeavoring to get into Charleston harbor, she was cleared for Vancouver's Is

Gen. Hunte has responded by issuing a retaliatory order, saying to Gen. Beauregard:

"Under these circumstances, and until this policy, in "violation of all the rules of war among civilized nations, be distinctly an practically repudiated, I announce to you that prisoners, or hereafter to become so, in my hands, will be kept in close confinement, and be held answerable with their lives for the safe of my officers who are prisoners; and that will not discharge, nor entertain application for the discharge of upon any pretext whatever any citizen or resident of Georgia, South Car-olina, or Florida, now in my hauds, or who may hereafter be captured by constwise expe-

A CALIFORNIA STORY .- In the worthern par of this State (California) is a stream called Yuba River. Across it some enterprising in ividual huilt a bridge; and on the bank omebody else huilt three or four houses. Th nhabitunts called the place Yuba Dam. Three ars were instantly erected, and the "town" increased rapidly. About noon one cool day a traveller und a sojourner in the land passed this flourishing locality, and, seeing a longlegged epecimen of humanity in a red shirt smoking hefore one of the bars, thus addressed

"Hellol" replied the shirt, with vigor, renoving his pipe from his mouth.
"What place is this?" demanded the travel-, whose name was Thompson. The answer of the stranger was unexpected:

There was about fifty yards between them nd the wind was blowing. Mr. Thompso ought he had been mistaken.
"What did you say?" he asked

"Yuba Dim," replied the stranger, cheer What place is this?" roared Mr. Thomp "Yu-ba Dam!" said the shirt, in a slightly "Lookee bere!" yelled the trate Thompson
"I asked you politely what place this was why in thunder don't you answer?"

The stranger because excited. He rose and eplied with the voice of an 80-pounder. "Yu-ba-dam! Do you hear that?"
In a minute Thompson, burning with the wrath of the righteous, jumped off his horse and advunced on the stranger with an expression not to be mistaken. The shirt arose and assumed a posture of offence and defonce.

Arrived within a yard of him, Thompson

'I ask you, for the last time, what place is Putting his hands to his mouth, his oppo

The next minute they were at it. hompson was down; then the shirl; and ther t was a dog fall—that is, both were down

They rolled about, kicking up a tremendou ight between two pugilistic centipedes. Fiwent down together, but came up separate, and put out for the shore. Both reached it about the same time and Thompson scrambled up the bank, mounted his warlike steed, and maile tracks, leaving his foe gonging the mnd own—that is to say, the corner where the three bars were kept—he struck a house in the suburbs, before which a little girl of about ur years of age was playing.

"What place is this, Sissy?" he asked.

The little girl, frightened at the drowned-rat figure which the stranger cut, streaked it for the house. Having reached the door she stopped — turned, and squeaked— 'Oo-bee-down!'

"Good Heaveust' said Thompson, digging his heeks between his horses ribs — "Good liteavens; let me get out of this horrid place, where not only the men but the very babes and sucklings awear at inollensive travellers Sheep Husbandry in Massachusetts .- Gov ernor Andrew, in his late message to the Legislature, after stating that farm products in general lu this State last year were about an average yield, and that fruits were more than ever abundant, made the following remarks in regard to sheep husbandry:

"The increasing attention paid to sheep husbandry promises to lead to important and sat-isfactory results. It is for the interests of the several towns to excourage the keeping of sheep by a more rigid enforcement of the law enacted for their protection. By the returns com two hundred and ninety-seven towns is appears that the number of dogs licensed in those towns in 1863 was 20,603, for which the amount paid was $22,630 20. The estimated number in those towns unlicensed was 12,513. I recommend the adoption of adequate peualties to enforce the law. Apart from the mere question of cheap production of wool, the experience of the most advanced agricultural nations, like England, Germany, and France, goes to show that sheep are an ecessity of a good general system of husoundry, on even the highest priced lands, and amid the densest population. Yet the number of sheep has for many years constantly deand horses had largely increased, so that the gross value of live stock which, in 1850, was $9,647,700, had, in 1860, become $12,737,444, notwithstanding the constantly growing claims of manufactures and the mecbanic arts upon the industry of our people.' SPECULATIONS IN REAL ESTATE IN NEW YORK. A letter from New York says the speculations in real estate in that city last week were unisually large, and adds:

"The speculative movement is steadily in

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9
A beater of official despatches from the ficet off Charleston has arrived here. The following is from Rear-Admiral Dupont, cou-cerning the rebel attack on our equadron off hat point: FLAG-SHIP WARASH, PORT ROYAL. February 2, 1863. Sig.: I have to report that about 4 o'clock on the morning of the 31st ult, during the obscurity of a thick haze, two iron-clad gunboats came out of Charleston by the main ship channel, unperceivable by the squadron, and commenced a raid upon the blockeding fleet.

Moet of the latter were of the light class o purchased vessels, two of the heaviest men-of-war, the Powhattan and the Canundaigua, be-ing at this port, coaling and repairing.

The Mercedita was the first vessel attacked liter officers and crew had been particularly watchful during the night to look out for sue unning for the chanuel by mistake. She curned to her anchorage and Capt. St wageu had gone to his room for a short time, caving Lieut. Commander Abbott on leek, when one of the iron-clads suddenly appeared. Her appreach was concealed by the haze and moist of the atmosphere. The vessel was ring low in the water, no guns could be rought to bear upon her. A heavy rifle-ebel was fired from the energy, which, entering the starboard side of the Mercedita, passed through her condenser and the steam-dram of her por notier, and exploded against her port side blowing a hole, in its crit, some four or five ect square, killing the gunner, and by the escape of steam scalding a number of the men ape of steam scalding a number of the and rendering her motive power apparently Unable to use his guns, and being at the nercy of the enemy, who was alongside on his starboard quarter, all further resistance was cemed hopeless, hy Capt. Stellwagen, and hourrendered. The crew and officers were paroled, though nothing was said of the ship, the Executive Officer, Licutenant Commander Abbot, having gone on board the enemy's guiboat and made the arrangement.

The iron clad leaving the Mercedita to her ate, to sink or not, next engaged the Keystone State, Commander Lerey, who was attacked by the other. Their fire was gallantly re-by the other. Their fire was gallantly returned, but a shell exploding in the forehold of the vessel she was set on fire.

Commander Lerny kept off until the fire was got under, when he steered again for the uron-clad, having ordered on a full head of steam, determined to try to run her down. The guns had been trained and depressed for a plunging fire at the moment of collision, and the ship had acquired a speed of twelve knots, when a shell or shot from the color was assed.

We take it for grauted that among the nembers of the great loyal majority in the General Assembly of Kentucky there is and can be no serious controversy respecting the national affairs. We see no room for such

All agree in rejecting explicitly the arhitrary and destructive acts of the Administration; all agree in clinging with unshaken devotion to the Union and the Constitution; and all agree that in the protest of the General Assembly these two grand points should he so combined and presented as most effectually to promote the common end of both; namely the preservation of the government of our fathers as our fathers made it. All honestly agree in all this. And this covers the whole The great loyal majority of the Legislature are agreed on all essential points respecting the national affairs. If they differ at all. therefore, they can differ only on non-essen tial points, concerning which every individual may consistently defer to the preference of the greater number, whatever it may prove when it shall he distinctly indicated. Surely here is uo fit opening for anything approximaing a serious controversy.

And we hope that nothing approximating such a controversy will he allowed to rush o squeeze in through this opening. Patriolism and prudence demand that every member o the majority shall make it his especial busines carefully to guard the opening.

A NEGRO ARMY .- In illustration of the reasons that the people think they have to fear our army when the war is over, we wil refer to a recent publication by General Milroy and some other abolition officers from Indiana After denouncing as trailors the Democratic nembers of the Indiana Legislature for fulfilling the wishes and pronouncing the opinions of their constituents, these officers assum at the South, we will upon our return, while our hands are in, also exterminate treason at the North, by arms, if need he, and by the blood of tractors wherever found." This inamous threat from his subordinates, it is to be hoped the President has not seen. In other fays its authors would have been promptly lismissed in disgrace from the army. If such breats can be made with impunity by army theera against the people who are taxed to pay, clothe, and feed them, and be held in ter rotem over the representatives of the people, the days of freedom are nearly gone. W American liberty. Take this threat in onnection with the notorious fact, that the last elections in Missouri were carried under the terror of the bayouet, and the Schate and President must see that this is no time for inreasing but for soothing these fears of the people. If they do not so see and not they need not be surprised at the daily increasing lustead of unnecessarily awelling the vast expenditures of the war, by organizing a negro army that must be powerless for everything but evil, we should endeavor, by the most vigilant and regorous economy, to retrench the present expenditures. Such ratrenchment is both a military and a political ecessity of no flexible order. Unless ou expenditures are circumscribed within some sonable limit, our defeat is imminent. We will destroy our national credit. When that is destroyed, we shall have used "the last man and last dollar" of impassioned patriots. There will be nothing left for sacrificial offering on the altar of country. Every effort should be made to ward off that result. With out the credit, we cannot obtain the dollar. and, without the dollar, we cannot obtain the | under the English stump acts. It would be man. These may be unpalatable truths; bu they are truths, and they are less unpalatable for the lawyer to read and study these sugges now than they will become hereafter, if we fail holdly to grapple with them now. It benooves us in this emergency to act like men

Our revenue from taxation and tariff will not cover more than a fourth or at most a third of our expenses; for the balance we have to deomporary, partial expedient. Secretary Chase, ogether with the finance committees, see and dmit that an increase of their amount will only serve proportionally to their depreciation and a corresponding increase in the amount of our expenses. Tho Secretary says he has negotiated a permanent loan only to the amount of twenty-five millions, that no more can he obtained, or, if at all, only to a moderate amount and at a ruinous sacrifice; yet such loans are the only means of carrying on the war. Adequate taxation would be so his opportunity for negotiating such loans by was sustained by an undivided public senti- annual expenditure, and is nearly double the was at fever heat. Much of the loan if then effected would have found a market in Eu- ry and 86,308 cavalry; in war these number rope, furnishing the means at home for taking new loans. The solid, redundant capital seeking permanent investment to such vast amount loes not and never did exist in this country. Probably it never will exist here whilst the lishment for the year 1863 is counted and dis great bulk of our real estate remains unim- tributed as follows: Interior 338,562, Algeria

The proposed hank scheme of the Secretary of the Treasury, if successful, would absorb the force in Mexico must be increased. It could have been effected then, because the North was that the unsnimity and zeal of a year ago are Why are they gone? It is beration not acceptable to the nation; because the policy of the Administration is no longer ton Courier as follows: "I propose to spin the to maintain the Constitution as it is and restore the Union as it was. North will supply the means. Unpitel in large amounts does not exist for such a permanent loan, but it is distributed (brough the na tion in small sums which in the great oggregate are an enormous amount. In that restored state of things, an appeal to the nation for patriotic loan would, as it did in Frauce, bring ill this out. Every old woman would lend the government her spare hundred dollars. It some such policy as the our here indica ed is not pursued, the government must almost certainly sink under the pecuniary load of the war. Our armies caunot be kept in the field without money. Most respectfully and with all deference to other opinious, it does appear to us that the money can be obtained n no other way. The ultra abolitionists ar prohably, all told, not two hundred thousand oters, with comparatively little wealth, and ven less influence when deprived of that which they derive from the Administration t is every way proper that they and not th est of the nation should he made to yield it uch an exigency. A large, a very large maority of the astion is unalterably opposed to the destruction of the whole white popula tion and property of the South. It is sheet madness to attempt to carry out any policy against the will of such a majority.

A TARATISE ON THE LAW OF PROMISSOR NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE. BY THE PHILUS PARSONS, LL. D .- The legal profes ion has heretofore heen indehted to Professo Parsons for several valuable books. Ilis work on Contracts is, for the American lawver, es ecially superior to all others, and the sam may he said, with almost equal confidence, of his treatises on Maritime and Mercantilo Law But howeverhigh our obligations to the author have been for his past labors, they must h nmensely increased by the Treatise on Notes and Bills. For though he has been pro eeded in this field by Bayley, Byles, Chitty Story, and others, none have explored it so horoughly or exhaustively as he.

Professor Parsons does not hesitate to ex press his opinion on all doubtful or moote questions. He does not, like Judge Story, sur up the authorities on the one side and the othe and leave it to the "learned reader" to choos between them; but, in the text, he explicitly expresses his own opinion derived from careful examination of all the authorities, and defers all, or nearly all, dis cussion to the notes where the authoritie bearing on the given questions are cited and discussed with great learning and ability These notes do not always merely refer to th authorities by name, volume, and page, bu opious passages are quoted from the most im ortant and instructive decisious, thus supply complete series of all the published Repor nooted questions correctly, but we know of work on the subject to which it relates so fr of errors or in which so maoy explicit opcertain "and exchange added " Chitty, Stor and Bayley will be roughted in vain f any answer to this question. Patsons say it is not. Considering the extensive ence lation of paper in this form smeng ries chants the importance of this question Parsons's opinion is correct or not and w hink it more than doubtful -it should operat to caution merchants against the use of such paper. Must demand and protest be made and notice given according to the law of the o that where the signatures are made? When he defendant has shown that the paper wa given without consideration, or that the consideration has failed, or that the paper wa obtained by fraud, is the burden thrown of the plaintiff to prove that he is a home holder for value? Who is a bond hale holde s he such a holder who takes a bill in payment of or no collateral security for an ant cedent deld? On all these and other equally difficult questions the opinion of our nuthor is clear and decided, but it would swell this notice much beyond appropriate limits even o indicate what his opinions are on the point raised or were we to extend the list of questions which the legal profession has regarde as unsettled, and on which Mr. Parsons ha expressed an opinion. Appended to the work is an accurate reprin I the provisious of the recent act of Con gress in relation to bills, notes, letters of credi drafts, orders, and checks, together with a brie but valuable examination of some question which the statute suggests, and the authorities upon kindred questions which have arisen well for the mcrchaut and hanker as well tions. REBEL FORCE IN SOUTHEASTERN KENTUCKY All reports from Danville in reference to the presence of ten thousand rehel troops south of the Cumherland, beyond Somerset, are wholly unreliable. Information was received at headquarters in this city yesterday, however, to the effect that about two hundred rebel eav alrymen were at Ravena, in Russell county a day or two ago, and that they had gone off in the direction of Albany, in Lincoln county These two hundred are a portion of a force of nine hundred men, under command of Col Tucker, and Colonel Lawrence Robinson alias "Col. White," who are quartered a Treviss, on Wolfe river. The great object of wishing to he represented at the proposed these troops is to steal horses and supplies. Humburg Exhibition, are requested to apply Their cureer in that portion of the State will soon ho closed.

THE HILL WATER WHARF .- The transfer lo the city of the ground lying between First and Second streets and Beargrass and the river was consumuated on Thursday evening, at a cost to the city of thirty-five thousand dollars for the entire property. It will be remembered that, a few weeks ago, that portion of this property which fronted immediately upon the river, was purchased by the city at a cost of fifty thousand dollars, and we are now gratified to learn that the remainder of the projerty, the right to which was vested in certain heirs, has been transferred to the city. This secures to the corporation the ownership of all the wharf property between Brook and Ninth streets. There is now nothing in the way of the satisfactory solution of the problem of a high-water wharf for Louisville, to gain which object the combined wisdom of the city authorities has for years been exerted. We are gratified to learn that it is in contemplation to fill the bed of the Beargrass which now mars this new city property, which will pormanently secure that portion of the city wharf against overflow.

The draymen and other teamsters of this city have held a meeting recently to consider a proposition to advance their prices for hauling. , Wo observe that the draymen of Cincinnati have decided to advance their prices as follows: An advance of ten cents per load on all loads to and from the depots; five cents on loads to and from canals and river; twenty-five cents on loads to and from the Covington and Lexington Railroad depot. The advance on loads drawn between stores will he in proportion to the number of calls.

Their late repulse at Fort Donelson has pretty effectually put an end to all rehel operations on the Cumberland river, as they appear to have abandoned that stream to the Federal gunboats and free navigation. The Liberty and other boats which arrived yesterday from Nashville, came out of the Cumherland without coavoy, and the Jacob Strader and the accompanying ficet lelt Nushville yesterday unattended by gunhoats.

THEATRE.-The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Waller will close this evening, with the thrilling tragedy of "Bertram," Mrs. Waller personating the character of Imogene. The homicide has been arrested, and is awaiting examination.

is a national blessing. I witnessed some as tonishing results from this article. It is well known the effect of burnt gun powder and excitement is thirst, which, added to the loss of blood in the wounded, create the necessity of a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters otherwise called S. T .- 1860-X, and although the wounded are most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at 5 in the morning-the men were mostly composed, and there was very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves ia a most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent stupefying reactiou. It originated in the West Indies composed of the celchrated Calisaya Bark. Roots, Herbs, &c.; all preserved in St. Croix Rum-the S. T .- 1860-X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers stomachie difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the Southern States previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietors for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply: NEW YORK, Jan. 16, 1862.

DEAR SIR: la reply to your communication, offering us "Fifty thousand dollars for the recipe and right to make the Plantation Biters for your hospital purposes during the war," we beg to say, your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to urduties to our Government and our idea ain it, although it might pleaso us to assuage he sufferings of your misguided followers. We remain,

Very respectfully, yours, P. H. DRAKE & CO. These gentlemen give the history of certain ngredients of their article for over two huulred years-showing that through all changes strength, composure, and cheerfulness havo been derived from these sources. Dr. Woods in the Washington hospitals informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and the Senate Committee, and that upon joint had not slept an hour for two weeks, until the pallot of the two Houses Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge when one day's trial gave him a night's rest Mr. Gratz having received a majority of the and ho was now fast recovering. I am surprised our Government has not equalled Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this invaluable article in all our hospitals. The eak soldiers cling to it like a brother. MAYFIELD, Kr., Feb. 5, 1863. GENTLEMEN: In your Daily Journal of the

An act to allow the Judge of the McCracken when they put their trattorous heads together. rite the communication be signed as they will the author, with a threat of exposure, personal responsibility, &c. This was done to deter the author from a reply and thus cover up and prevent an investigation of the facts. The object will not be attained. I am the author the article referred to by the said John Daker, late foreman as aforesaid, published in your paper of the 14th January, 1863, signed "Fair Play." I proclaimed it publicly and privately, and as such author am ready to re> ignity, to vindicate himself triumphantly, if he can, through the columns of your paper; nevtheless, that will not obvinte the necessit when he stands before one, to account for the offences he has been guilty of since the inauguration of the present nucalled-for rebelion against the Constitution and laws of the United States. I will teach this old hardened neer before I am done with him that the nieu men in Graves county have not yet oat all the respent they have for them-selves, for their honor, and their manhood; struggle we have passed in Keutucky, made by Union men on one side against rebels and trailors on the other, been idle specta-

order on the side of the Union men, anarchy the aid of the General Government, have been able to drive from the State the armed gobels and traitors with whom the said John Eaker, foreman, as aforesaid, sympathized, he, with others of like sympathics, turns round and proposes to use the very we the Union men were contending for against nem,—not for a vindication of the law, but a machine to harass and bring odium on iem, and all on account of their ndehtu to th Government, whilst he and the guilty perpetrators of the most heinous offences are to go Scott free. No, sirs; to this, for one, I will never submit in sileure; these men must be dealt with and brought to justice; and, so help me (Iod. I intend to aid in the good work despite their breats and denunciations. , despite their threats and denunciation rol lto destining or we must submit to the lo. Tis true most of them are under onth true to the Government and State, but to be true to the Government and State, but up experience and observation is that you might as well executed a shark never to stink as to swear a traitor to be true to his country. The truth is, the time has come when this traitorous minority should be made in peace to submit to Constitution and laws. No gentleman will live in a State be is untrue to, nor will a gentleman exercise or claim privileges under a Government he is a traitor to; if he does, he ought to be made to take a back seat; if he fails to do so, the law ought to be enforced against him, which would incarcerate him in the prison made for malefactors, there to expiate his crimes malefactors, there to expiato his crimes until the old foreman shall triumphantly vindicate himself. I shall say nothing more, but remain as ever yours, in the bonds of the Union. LUCIAN ANDERSON.

Government Stamps in Legal Proceedings.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, George S. Bontwell, Eq., has addressed a letter to the Clerk of the Superior Court at Baltimore, in answer to loquiry, giving the following information in relation to the government stamps required to be used for certain legal instruments. The Commissioner states: from stamp duty. When, however, the Clerk issues a certificate to the effect that a release had been placed on record, or makes a certified copy thereof, such certificate must be stamped as provided in schedule B of the excise law. Second—that hills of sale are excempt. Third—that actions by coosent are subject to stamp duty as original process. Fourth—that the bonds for the conveyance of land comes within the meaning of the second clause of schedule B, pertaining to bouds, and is therefore subject to a stamp duty of 25 cents. Fifth—that the forms of bonds named and numbered as in letter B, replevin honds, injunction bonds, bonds to dissolve attachments, being bonds required in legal proceedings, are exempt from stamp duty. Sixth—trustee's bonds come within the meaning of the lirst clause of the schedule pertaining to had been placed on record, or makes a certithe lirst clause of the schedule pertaining to bonds for the due performance of official du-ties, and is, therefore, aubject to 50 cents stamp duty.
